

Final face to face sessions of the blended training «Social dialogue as a tool for Corporate Policy Development in Ukrainian Enterprises» developed in the framework of MATRA KAP Program were delivered by ILID team. Three groups of participants defended their projects successfully. Our best-hearted congratulations to participants and invitation to continue collaboration within the project: dissemination of training materials and round table discussion.